LAAS

FREEZER UNIT

With its wide dimensions, our Laas island-site case is ideal for presenting packaged frozen foods and ice cream in an appealing way.

The elegant design maximises the view of the products thanks to the tall panoramic glass. Laas units can be combined to create rows of various lengths and connected to shop-around ends for highly effective product displays.

By incorporating your preferred accessories, we can come up with exactly the right solution to showcase your products successfully.

VOLUME

Large product holding capacity.

FLEXIBILITY

The display cases can be provided with ducting.

PRESENTATION

Fully glazed for a transparent view of the products.

CUSTOM DESIGN

All our display cases can be matched to the visual identity of your store in terms of their colours and materials.
