FRESH COUNTER

The Meran self-service tower is the ideal high-end solution for presenting and storing products such as cold meats, cheeses and beverages. In addition to this, it can be used as a back wall counter. It is equipped with hinged doors as well as sliding rear panel doors for quick and easy loading or serving. The tower is fully transparent for a perfect view of all products and offers extreme versatility of use.

Meran enables products to be displayed perfectly even when specialist staff cannot remain on hand all the time.
